“Diversicon is a truly invigorating, well-crafted, and enjoyable conference for true sci-fi lovers, progressive thinkers, and science fiction writers alike. Diversicon provided an excellent platform for me to share my works Afrofuturism and Rayla 2212 to new audiences. I was thoroughly elated to meet so many thoughtful and conscious sci-fi readers who were truly struggling with the themes and works amongst edge future writers and beyond. I look forward to attending in the future.”—Ytasha L. Womack

Message from the Chair: This year we have another great line up of guests. We will also have our usual mix of great panels and discussions. Join us for a great weekend of speculative literature and science.

-Scott Lohman

Flash Fiction, Round 12! The Flash Fiction Contest, suggested by Diversicon 16 Guest of Honor Anne Frasier, continues at D27 with Judge Nisi Shawl. We want stories up to 250 words (firm), related to the Convention Theme, “The Next Step.” Entries will be judged on the creative interpretation of the theme, the quality of the writing, and emotional/intellectual impact. The winner gets a cool certificate, the honor of winning, and the honor of reading your work out loud at our Auction Halftime Saturday night. Submit no later than 11:59 p.m. Central Standard Time, July 14, 2019, to diversicon@gmail.com. No entry fee, but only open to attending members of the convention. Writers of any experience level may submit. The Diversicon Chair and the Programming Director are ineligible. Authors retain all rights to the stories.

Programming: Programming will feature two to 2 ½ tracks (40-50 items), including Guest readings and/or presentations, our usual lively mix of panels and discussions on SF in literary media, film, TV, graphic arts, and pods; speculative science; alternative lifestyles; and—especially—multicultural SF. We’ll hold our 21st annual Yugo Awards Book Review for “Best SF works that should have been written.” Other topics will be the work of the Guests, both living and posthumous; the announcement of the winners of the Rhysling Awards for Best Science Fiction and Fantasy Poetry of the year, with accompanying round robin readings; and the fabulous SF Minnesota Auction. Your Programming suggestions are welcome! Contact Eric M. Heideman, eheideman@dhzone.com, and Scott Lohman, scottl2605@aol.com, and/or the Diversicon PO box, and/or the Programming “Blue Sheet” posted on our website, to submit ideas--priority consideration will be given to ideas received by June 15, 2019—and/or to let Programming know of your interest in being on Program items.

SF Minnesota Auction: Featuring books, DVDS, BluRays, artwork, and miscellaneous items, the Auction supports our Sponsoring Organization and its projects. And it’s great fun! To donate or consign items contact Eric (eheideman@dhzone.com) or Scott (scottl2605@aol.com).

Hotel: To be determined.

Hospitality: Rich Brown will serve gourmet coffee and latte Saturday and Sunday mornings; the Minnesota Space Frontier Society will host our Hospitality suite, near our function rooms, assisted by Hospitality veterans Sybil M. Smith, Carole Ashmore, and Hank Lederer. More Hospitality hosts are eagerly sought.

Krushenko’s: Inspired by a Manhattan bistro in Larry Niven’s Ringworld, this space is for people who like to spend some time at SF conventions talking about SF. It started at the 1983 Minicon, and now also materializes at MarsCon, WisCon, and Con-Sarnit (including Diversicon-hosted or co-hosted parties at MarsCon and WisCon). At Diversicon 27 it will be near the other function rooms. Stop by for a mix of readings, discussions, and conversational parties hosted by SF-related groups.

Parties: We like parties! If you and/or your SF-related group are interested in hosting a party at D27, contact Hotel Liaison Eric M. Heideman (eheideman@dhzone.com) and/or Chair Scott Lohman (scottl2605@aol.com).

Progress Report One

“How wonderful to attend a con where the diversity of culture in speculative literature is considered a strength, not a liability!”—Bryan Thao Worra

“Diversicon is a convention for the unconventional.”—Karen Joy Fowler

Diversicon is a project of SF MINNESOTA, a multicultural, multimedia organization dedicated to improving contacts among groups and individuals interested in speculative fiction, in and out of the traditional SF community. Our continuing mission: to provide the most thoughtful Programming and the mellowest, most welcoming Parties of any Minnesota SF convention, and to making our state’s SF community more closely reflect the cultural diversity of Minnesota in the Third Millennium.
